9 PRINCIPLES OF SELECTION FOR ADMISSION:

Selection of candidates for admission will be made on the basis of their merit, that is, marks secured in the qualifying examination.

9.1 SF Courses: The merit list will be prepared by computing the aggregate marks of different boards to 600(Excluding extra optional marks for BBA)

9.2 P.G. Courses:

9.2.1 The merit list shall be prepared in the order of the following preference.

- a) Category I: First class Honours with 60% or above marks.
- b) Category II: Second class Honours with 45% or above marks.
- c) Category III: Candidates without Honours but 50% marks in the pass / elective and compulsory subject taken together (for general category)/ 45% marks in the pass / elective and compulsory subjects taken together (for SC/ST category).
- d) Category IV: Pass elective students having the concerned subject (50% for Gen category & 45% for SC/ST category)
- e) Category V: All other students.

a) For admission in to M.Sc. (Physics): Mathematics Honours students are to be placed below Physics Honours students in category II and above category III. (Clause 9.2.1)

b) For admission into Mathematics: Physics Honours and Statistics Honours students are to be placed below Mathematics Honours candidates in category II & above category III. (Clause 9.2.1)

c) For admission into M.A. (Odia): Sanskrit Honours Students are to be placed below Odia Honours students in category II and above category III. (Clause 9.2.1)

d) The cases of candidates who did not have Odia as an optional subject in degree level will be considered after consideration of candidates under clause 9.2.1 (d) category IV. The aggregate marks plus marks secured in MIL (O) converted to full marks of elective subject will be the basis for selection.

e) Candidates securing Honours in other subjects will be considered along with the pass students. Their aggregate marks will be determined by reducing the Honours marks (i.e. to the level of total marks of Elective / Pass subject.) The aggregate marks plus the marks secured in the concerned subject will be considered for selection in case of pass students.

Note: i) For candidates who have passed any examination compartmentally, the average of two marks secured in the subject shall be taken into consideration for determining the aggregate.

ii) Subject concerned means the subject applied for P.G.

10. EQUALITY OF MARKS:

a) For Self Financing Courses: in case of equality of marks in the aggregate, the relative merit shall be determined on the basis of marks in English

b) For P.G.: In case of equality of marks in Honours / Pass subjects, the relative merit shall be determined on the basis of aggregate marks in the Degree examination.
