

ECONOMICS- Core Course XIV- Development Economics-II (Semester-VI)

UNIT-I

- 1) Critically examine the relationship between population and economic development of a country.
- 2) Discuss in details the problems of labour market in India. Analyse the harmful consequences that follow from labour migration.
- 3) Explain the demographic transition theory.
- 4) Explain the demographic features of population in Indian economy.
- 5) What is population explosion? Explain the causes and effect of population explosion in India.
- 6) Examine the relation between income, mortality and fertility choice under the process of economic development.

UNIT-II

- 1) Examine the role of agriculture on an economy. Discuss the causes of low productivity in Indian agriculture.
- 2) Discuss the types and sources of agricultural credit in India
- 3) Evaluate the performance of land reform. Why land reform failure to achieve its objectives.

UNIT-III

- 1) What is good governance? Examine individual's responses to institutional failures in achieving various socio-economic goals.
- 2) Explain the individual behaviors in social environments.

UNIT-IV

- 1) Define Sustainability. Discuss the various policy options available for poor countries like India for controlling environmental changes.
- 2) Examine the relation between population, poverty and environment.
- 3) Explain the causes of environmental pollution? Suggest measure to check environmental pollution.
- 4) What is environmental externality? Explain the role of government intervention in environmental externality.
- 5) What is climate change? Explain the causes and effect of climate change in an economy.

- 6) What is Sustainable development? Explain the need and importance of sustainable development.

UNIT-V

- 1) Critically examine the role of 'Foreign Aid' in economic development of a country like India.
- 2) How come poverty and growth influence environment ? Discuss the linkage between environment and development.
- 3) What is globalization? Explain measures adopted for globalization and its effect on Indian economy.